

Erasmus+

“Build a small enterprise at school- Promoting our country abroad”

7th Workshop: “Accepting Diversity”

Greece: 22/4/18- 28/4/18

Sunday, 22/4/18

Arrivals

Dinner

Monday, 23/4/18

8.30-9.30: Visit to the school- Showing around- Meeting our teachers and students

9.30-10.00: Coffee break

10.00-10.30: Making the “tree of Different Nationalities”

11.00- 12.30: Welcome ceremony- Presentation of products from the Workshop “Accepting Diversity”, by the Greek Erasmus team

12.30-13.00: The coordinators of the other countries show their presentation material to the IT teacher, to make sure that their presentation will be carried out with no problems

13.00-14.00: Lunch at a local tavern

20.00: Greek “Party” at school, organized by our teacher, Mr. Vassilis Pnevmatikos and the Parents’ Association

Tuesday, 24/4/18

8.30-9.30: Workshop of Accepting Diversity→ Activities for children with physical difficulties, organized by our teacher Ms Stella Zontanou (teachers and students should wear tracksuits)

9.30-10.00: Coffee

10.00- 12.15: Presentation of the products from the Workshop “Accepting Diversity”, by our partners

12.30-14.00: A visit to the battleship “Averof”, a floating Naval Museum(students together)

14.00: Lunch at a local restaurant

19.00:A walk to the marina, in Palaio Faliro beach

Wednesday, 25/4/18

Workshop of Accepting Diversity→

- 8.30: A talk about “Diversity”, by our teacher for children with special needs, Ms Chrysa Giatsiou- Actions referring to “Diversity”
- 9.00-10.30:Mr Avgoulas, a blind person - member of SKEP(Association of Social Responsibility for Children and Youth), speaks about his personal experience
- 10.30- 11.00: Coffee
- 11.00- 13.00: A visit to an International school (students together)

13.30: Lunch at a local restaurant

19.00: Teachers and students watch a Planetarium show in Eugenides Foundation (Title: Strange worlds in the Solar System)

20.30: A walk to Stavros Niarchos Foundation Cultural Center

Thursday, 26/4/18

8.30-10.00: A visit to the “Touch Museum”. It is one of the 5 Museums of its kind in the world. Its peculiarity lies in the fact that visitors are able to touch the exhibits, thus allowing the visually unable people to come into contact with our cultural heritage. (students together)

10.00- 12.30: A visit to the Akropolis (Students together)

12.30- 14.00: A walk to the traditional cobblestone streets of Plaka and the flea market of Monastiraki- Shopping from the tiny shops selling jewellery, clothes and local ceramics

14.00: Lunch in a traditional tavern

Free afternoon and evening

Friday, 27/4/18

8.30: A trip to Epidavros ancient theatre, considered to be the most perfect ancient Greek theatre with regard to acoustics and aesthetics. (Students together). The Greek students are going to play at the ancient theatre an extract from the ancient tragedy "Antigone" by Sophocles.

12.00: A trip to Nafplio (once the capital of Greece)

14.30: Lunch in a traditional tavern

Saturday, 28/4/18

Departures